

Chad Botha

Director — Project Development and Delivery

Profile

Chad is a project development and delivery specialist with 25 years of experience in assessment and delivery of mineral resource projects, both at a project and business level.

He has managed resource projects in Australia, Asia and Africa, in various stages of development, from pre-feasibility to commissioning. This experience has included multiple commodities and a broad range of delivery models.

Chad has held the following roles at utilities, engineering companies and EPC contractors:

- SVP – Project Development
- SVP – Projects
- Project Director
- Project Manager
- Study Manager
- Engineering Manager
- Major Tender Manager / Lead

Chad has extensive experience in:

- Project management, particularly in the mining sector
- Contract negotiation
- Project delivery strategies and execution planning
- Feasibility studies
- Project controls
- Engineering management
- Procurement and subcontractor management
- Programme direction

Key Areas

Project execution strategy and implementation

Contract review and negotiation

Project management

Project controls

Programme management

Project delivery systems

Qualifications & Certifications

Bachelor of Science in Engineering (Mechanical)

Diploma in Project Management

PMP

0458 751 492

cbotha@neuplan.com.au

www.neuplan.com.au

